Proprietary Information

If an applicant considers any portion of his/her application to be protected under the law, the applicant shall clearly identify the start and end of the proprietary information by writing "CONFIDENTIAL," "PROPRIETARY" or "BUSINESS SECRET" at the start of the text and writing "CONFIDENTIAL END," "PROPRIETARY END" OR "BUSINESS SECRET END" to note the end of the proprietary information.

The Applicant shall also use the following text box to identify any material to be considered as confidential, including any uploaded documents. Please include:

1. The type of exemption (Confidential, Proprietary, or Business Secret)
2. The location of the text (i.e. the question number or the uploaded document name)

Character Limit: 10000

If a request is made for disclosure of such portion, Pacific Hospital PDA's legal counsel will review the material in an attempt to determine whether it may be eligible for exemption from disclosure under the law. If the material is not exempt from public disclosure law, or if Pacific Hospital PDA is unable to make a determination of such an exemption, Pacific Hospital PDA will notify the applicant of the request and allow the applicant ten (10) days to take whatever action it deems necessary to protect its interests. If the Applicant fails or neglects to take such action within said period, Pacific Hospital PDA will release the portion of the application deemed subject to disclosure. By submitting an application, the applicant assents to the procedure outlined in this section and shall have no claim against Pacific Hospital PDA on account of actions taken under such procedure.
