

What is your preferred caffeinated beverage?

In one word, what does "Health Equity" mean to you?

71 responses

What are some future Technical Assistance workshops would you like to see?

Data collectionReporting

Grant writing

Culturally driven and informed data collection and storytelling used in grant narrative and data justice.

Grant writing

CBPR

Computer

Computers

Teach people about their rights

What are some future Technical Assistance workshops would you like to see?

Social emotional workshops

Connecting organizations with health foundations and founders to engage professionalization for organizations engaged in health equity work

Data collection and Measurement

Help with reporting.

Support everyone in learning about their rights when it comes to health care

DEI Advocacy Storytelling Integratio n of physical and behavioral health combined with supportive housing Getting board members excited

Data collection

Data collection software

What are some future Technical Assistance workshops would you like to see?

Finding additional funds.

How to engage other major funders (major donors and other foundations)?

Practical methods for building a collaborative network of service providers

Working with interpreters

Participant focus groups

Mou/waviers/ legal best practice

Data analysis

Community outreach and community organization networking

What are some future Technical Assistance workshops would you like to see?

Community outreach and community organization networking

Connecting with funding opportunities

DEI TRAINING

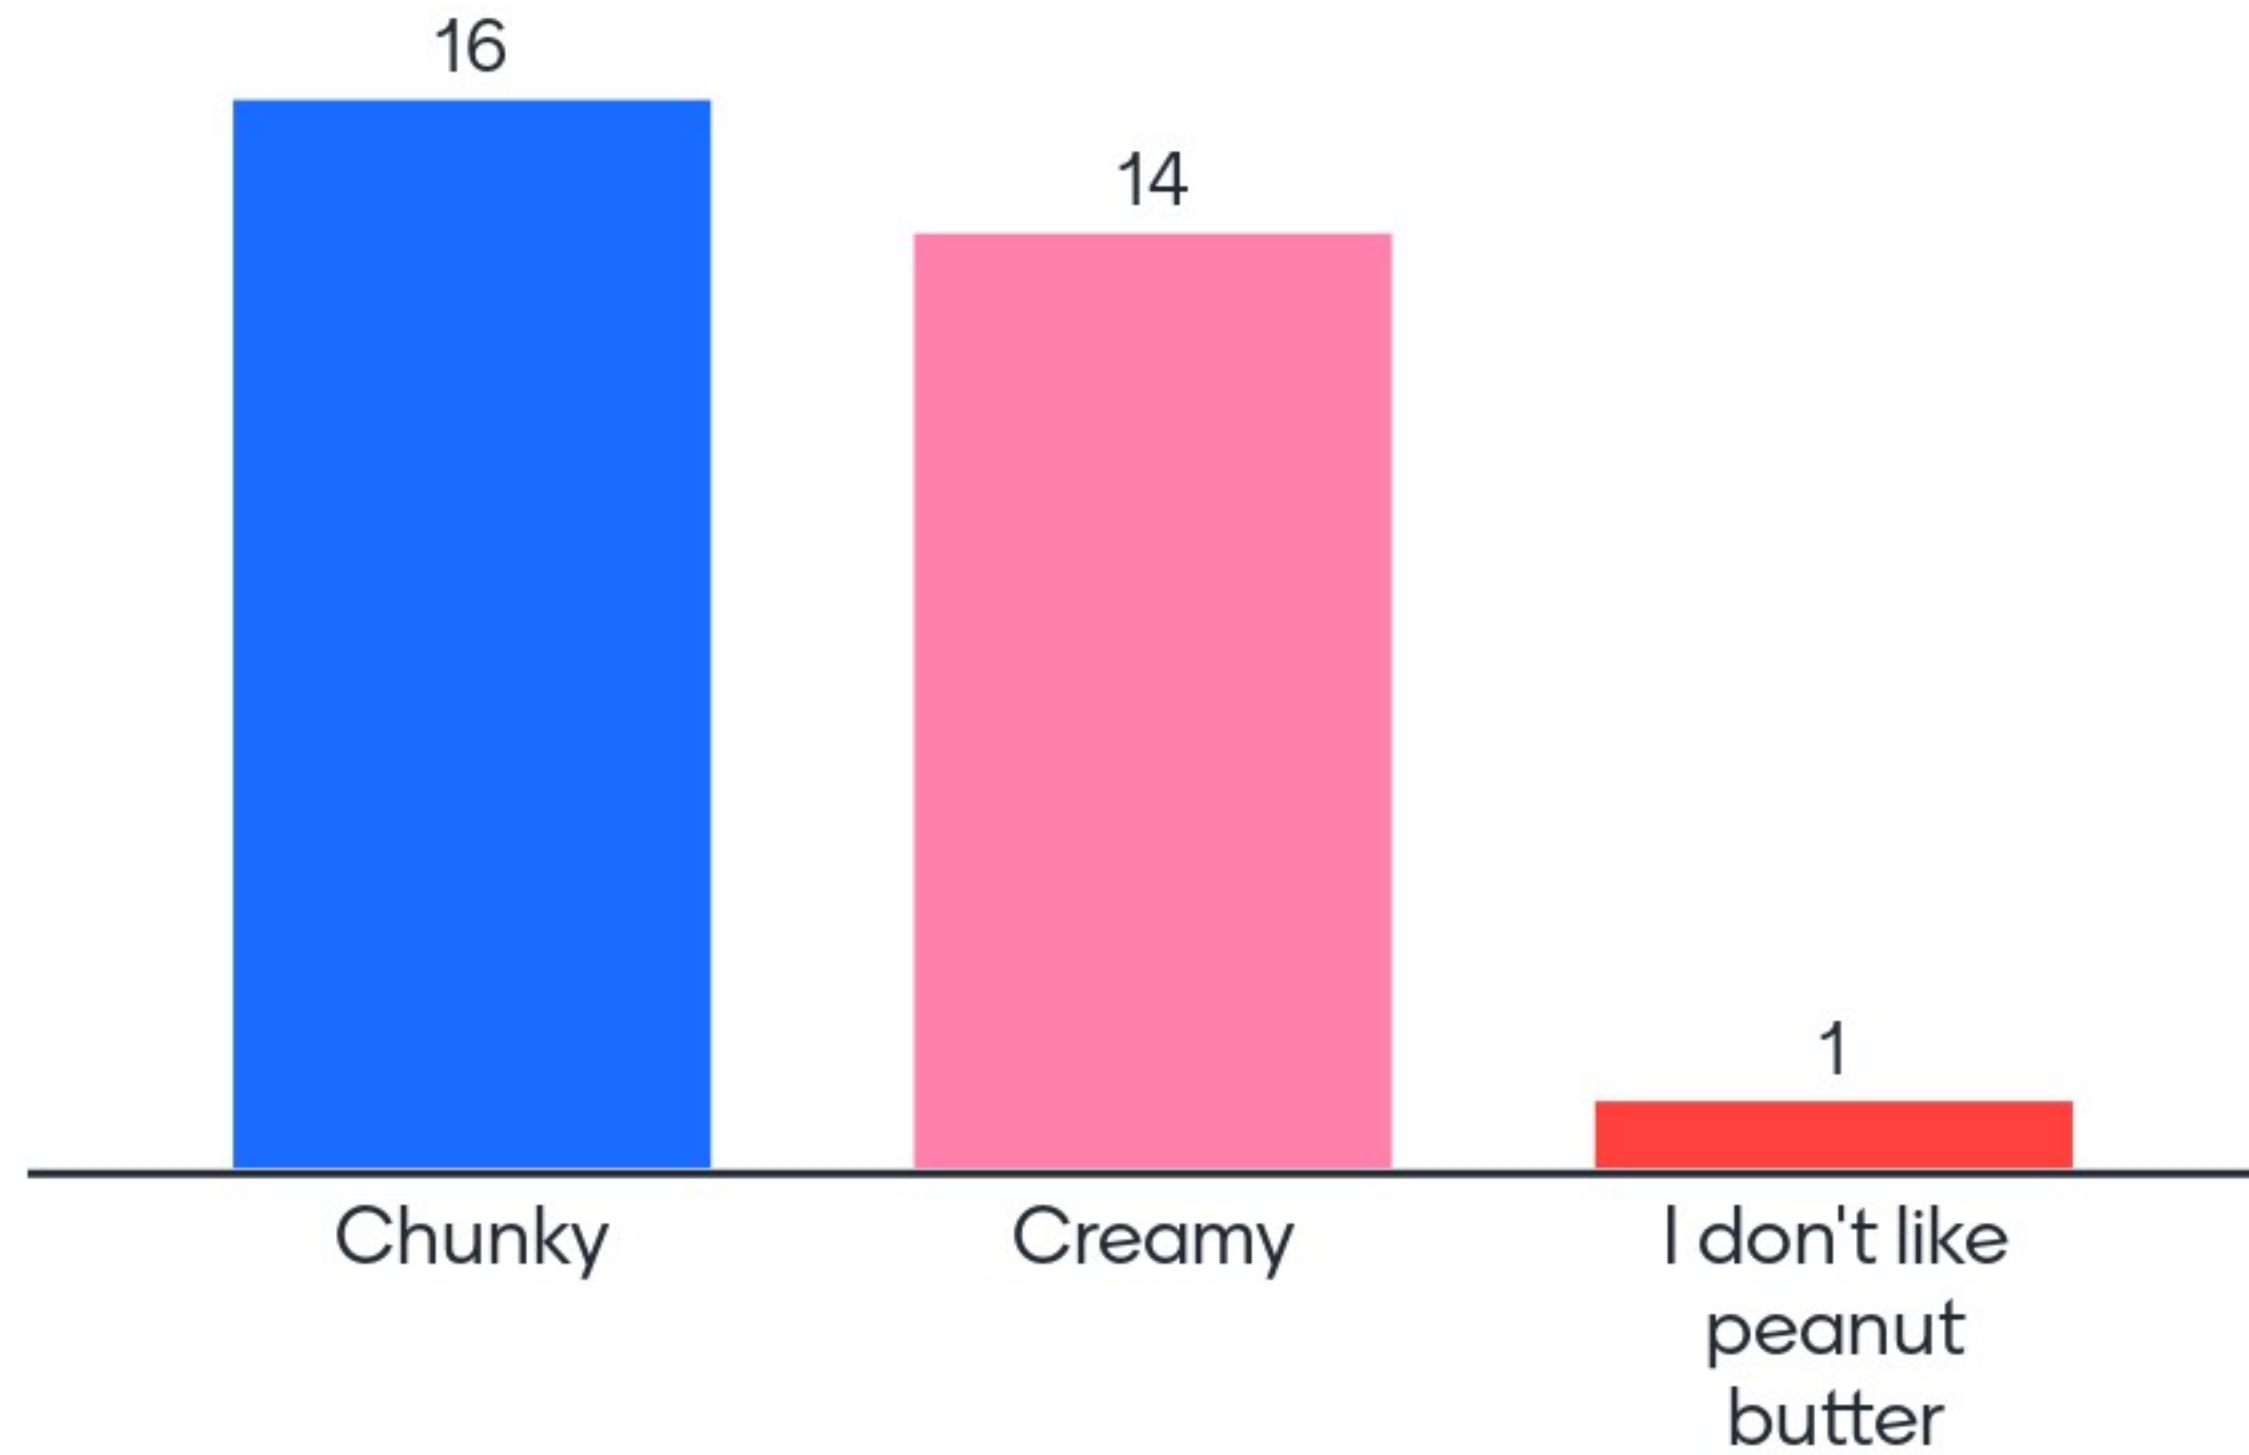

Community awareness

I

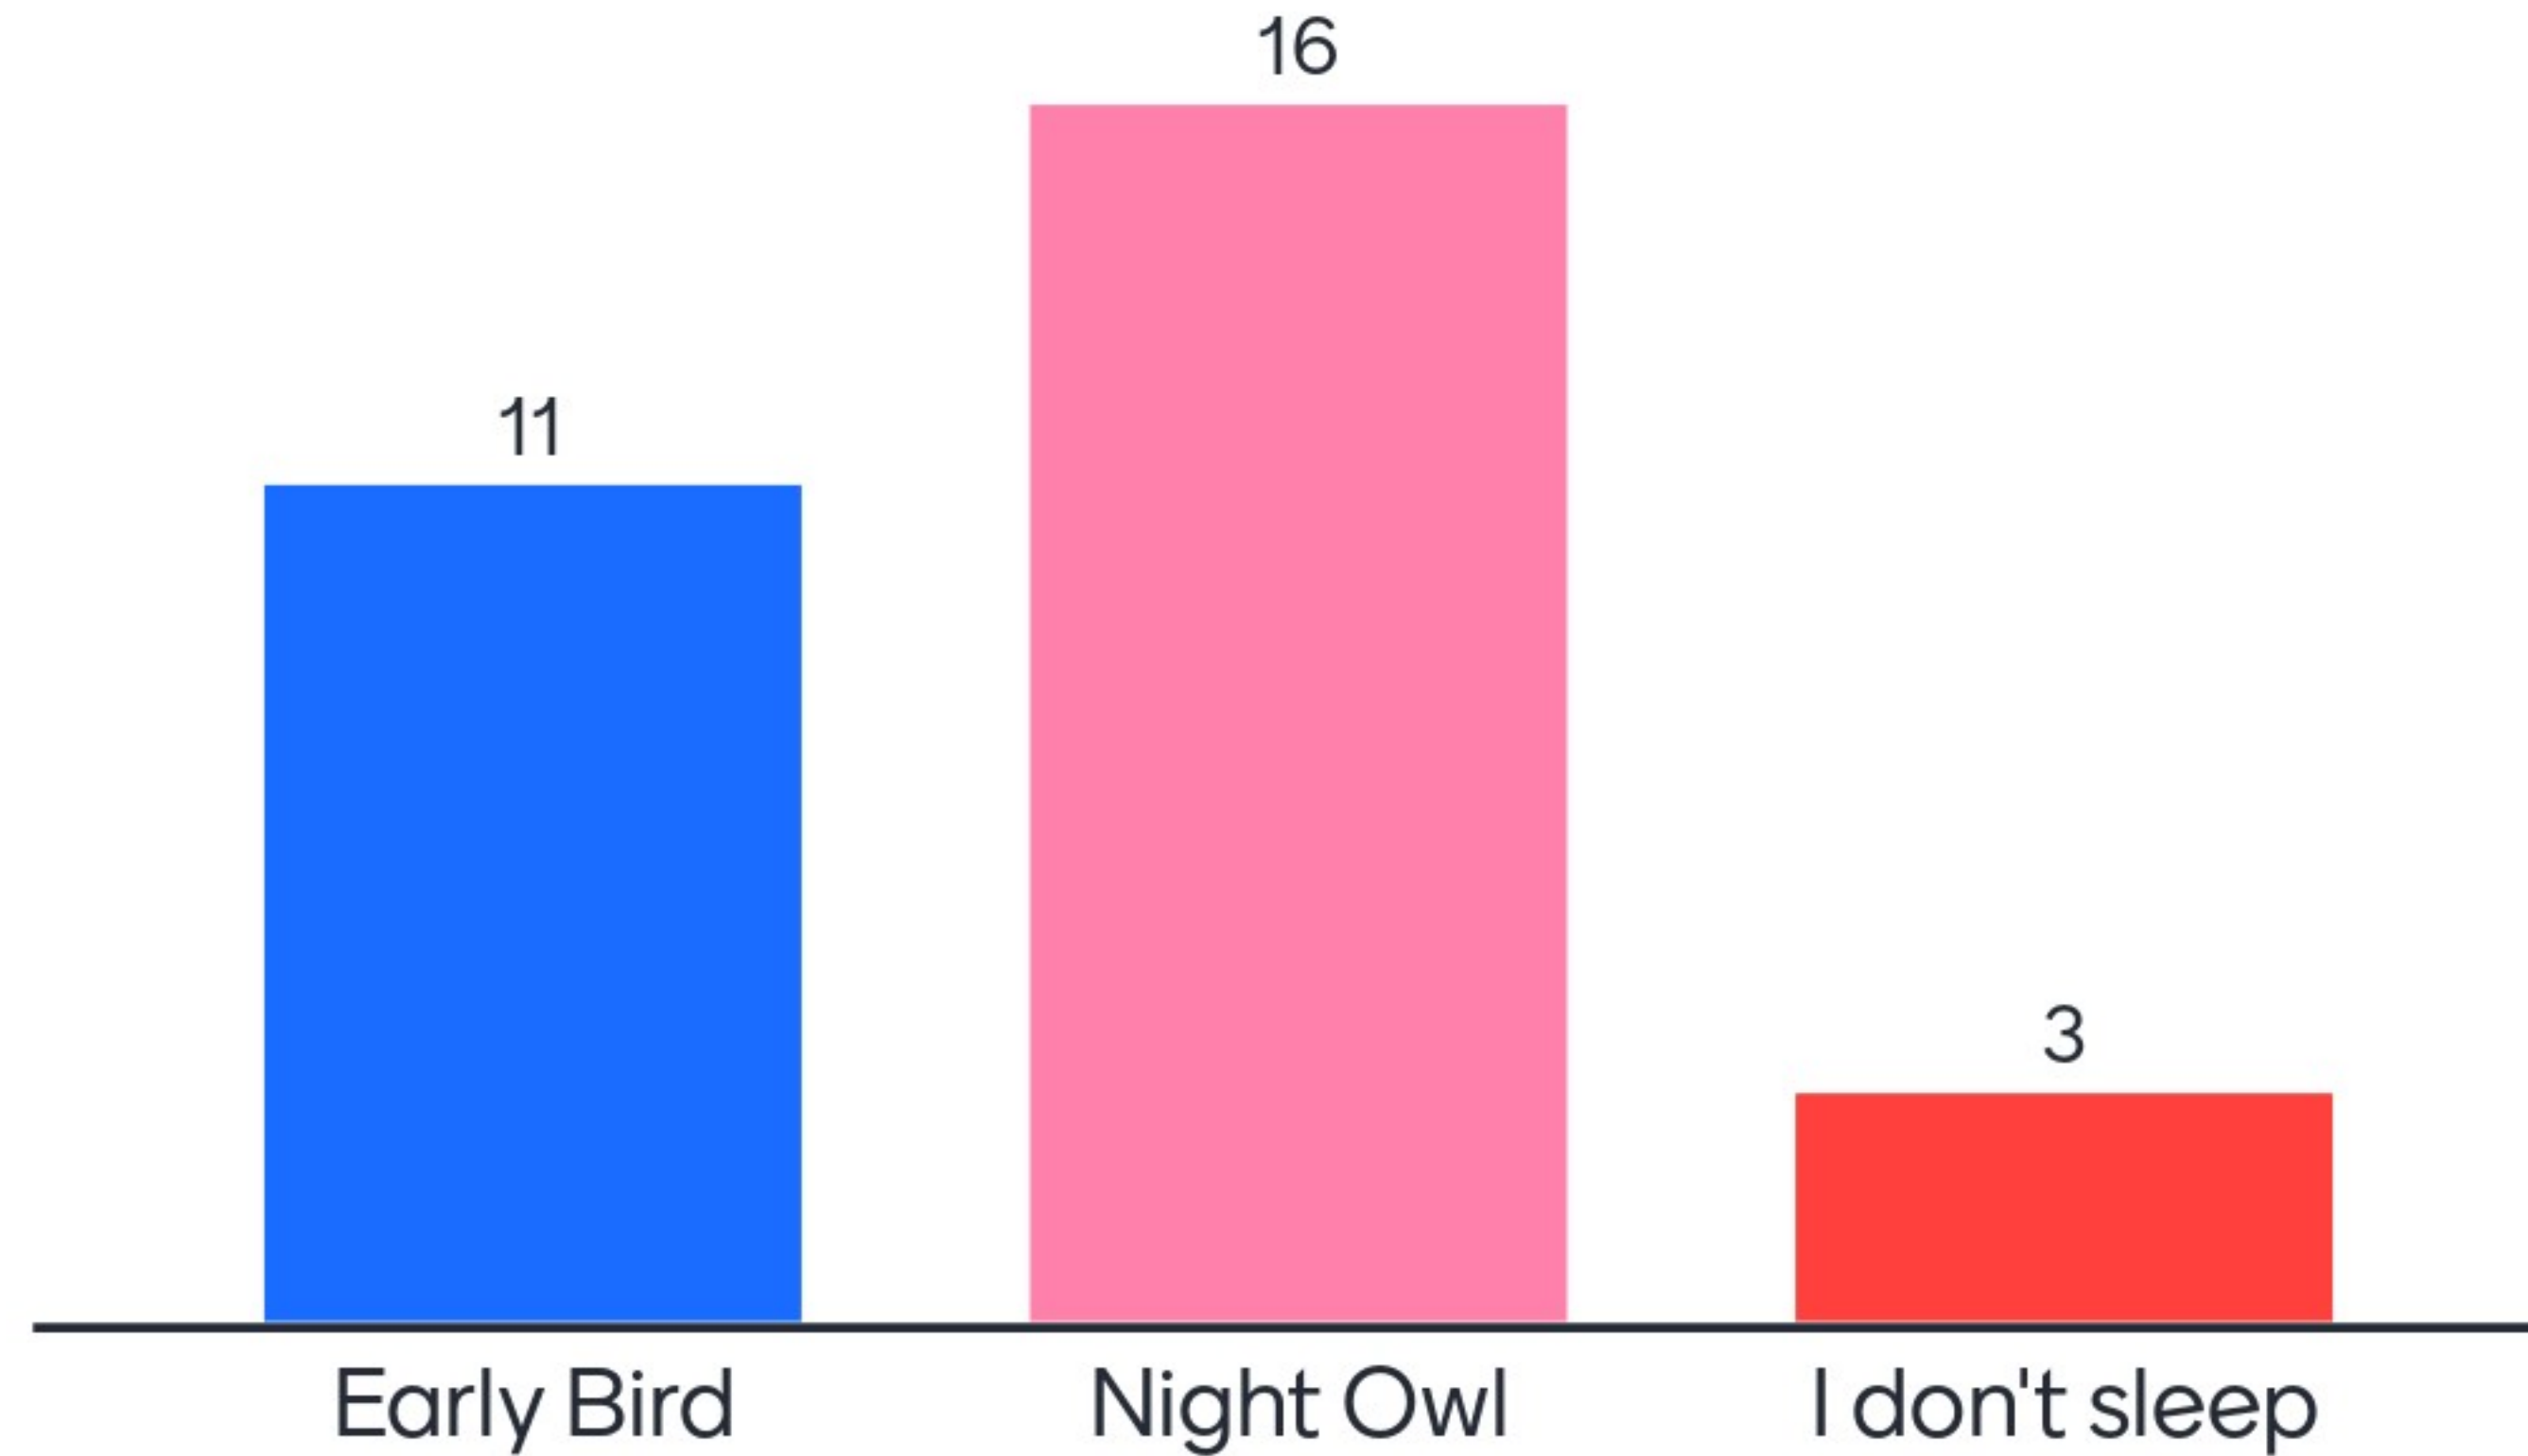

N/a

N/a

Do you prefer "chunky" or "creamy" peanut butter?

Are you an early bird or a night owl?

What are some words to describe your partnership with the Health Equity Fund?

50 responses

Do you prefer dark, milk, or white chocolate?

If you had to have one dessert every day for the rest of your life, pie or cake?

Pie

Cake

What are some other ways the Health Equity Fund can support you, beyond providing "just the check?"

Ongoing training opportunities

Connecting with resources

What future possibilities with phpda is there for 3rd year grantees?

Advocacy at state and national levels

More meeting on data reporting

Participating in programmatic events and doing check-ins/site visits to see the work in action. Offering diverse reporting that includes storytelling and multi-media options.

Connecting to other opportunities and learning.

This grant has been easy to manage which is important because we can then utilize the money directly with patients instead of administrative costs

What are some other ways the Health Equity Fund can support you, beyond providing "just the check?"

Help us get more funding

Capacity building

Assist with sustainability

Continue talking and working with us as we navigate various challenges and innovations.

Transparent reporting requirements

Networking with other organizations to develop those relationships

Workshops based on transition out of the phpda grant

Workshops on transitioning out of phpda grant

What are some other ways the Health Equity Fund can support you, beyond providing "just the check?"

Highlighting us on your social media outlets

Retreat for EDs.